Conservative Senators Tell Him To Remain Away Until Cleared Of Charges.

SENATE WORKS OVERTIME TODAY

Passes Seven Bills; Renovated Butler To Be So Labeled Is One Of Them—Other Measures Up.

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPTS-M'RAE.]
Madison, Wis., March 3.—Senator Barney Eaton of Milwaukee, under indictment for the alleged taking of bribes, came to the senate chamber this morning with the determination of taking his seat, but Senators Whitehead, Krenzer and other stalwarts gave him orders that he could not sit with them until he was cleared of the charges. He consulted with his attorney and just as the gavel fell hastened out of the chamber.

Gets to Work

The senate passed seven bills, including one to require renovated butler to be so labeled. A freak bill to pay newspaper men $200 a session was killed with facetious ceremonies.

Johnson's Bill

Senator Hudson offered a substitute resolution for Senator Johnson's demand that the governor prove his railroad earnings figures. The substitute referred the matter to Senators Halton, Johnson and Frear for investigation. It was passed.

Railways Through

The railroads have finished presenting their case in opposition to the proposed La Follette rate commission. Pierce Butler of St. Paul, general attorney for the Omaha road, argued yesterday afternoon that to pass the bill and take from the railroads the power to regulate rates to suit themselves, the power to discriminate in favor of certain industries and certain localities, would be a blow at the development of the state and would ruin many communities which have been built up by factories which are able to live only by reason of favorable railroad rates. The hearing will continue for arguments in favor of the bill in general, the railroads may have some rebuttal to present and then the committee will fix up the measure to pass, the enactment of which now seems assured.

Last Night

The senate passed five bills, including those of Senator Hudson, relating to restitution on reversal or setting aside of a judgment, and enabling county boards to assist immigration organizations; Senator North, authorizing the organization of mutual plate glass insurance companies by the owners of $5,000 worth of plate glass; Senator Froemming, relating to village boards, and Stevens, fixing the terms of court in Winnebago county.

Pension Agent

The Hudson (by request) bill to create the office of pension agent, and the Wythe bill to require non-resident dealers in fruit trees to give an indemnity bond for stock sold in Wisconsin, were indefinitely postponed.

ROOSEVELT WHITEWASHES THE BIG BEEF TRUST NOW

Sends The Report Of Commissioner Garfield To Congress This Afternoon.

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPTS-M'RAE.]
Washington, March 3.—The president sent to congress today a report of the alleged beef trust, prepared by Commissioner of Corporations Garfield in accordance with a resolution of the house. The summarized report says: "Six packing companies—Armour, Swift, Morris, National Packing company, Schwarzchild & Sulzberger, and Cudahy—designated as the 'Big Six,' in the year 1903 slaughtered 45 per cent of the twelve and a half million head of cattle slaughtered in the United States. The net average profits of the biggest concerns that year were 99 cents per head, not including the incidental profit. The year 1902 was less profitable than usual; during

San Francisco, Cal., March 3.—Dispatches from Honolulu state that Berntha Berner, Mrs. Stanford's private secretary, has named a Chinese cook, employed by Mrs. Stanford, as the man suspected of the poisoning of her mistress. This Chinaman, together with other servants are now inmates of the Stanford residence in this city. Watchmen are guarding some months the leading packers were actually losing money on every head slaughtered. The six leading companies are apparently not over-capitalized, the percentage of profit on the gross volume of business being comparatively small. Swift's profits the last three years were only two per cent of the total sales. The report says the profits of the private car lines in the packing industry are very liberal, being fourteen to seventeen per cent. While the 'Big Six' control the trade in the large centers, in the small towns the operations are less important. The fact is that they handle only 45 per cent of the business of the country and indicates the existence of active competition."

the gate and do not permit anyone to leave the residence. It is said arrests may be expected within twenty-four hours. Another Honolulu dispatch says Sheriff Henry denies Miss Berntha Berner, the secretary, or May Hunt, the maid, are under surveillance. In the case of the maid, he goes further to say that she is not suspected, although he will not tell who is suspected.

STRIKING MINERS START RIOT.
Armed Deputies Go to Quell Disturbance in Pennsylvania District.
Washington, Pa., March 3.—The striking miners at the Ellsworth coal mine, twelve miles east of here, are rioting and the situation is so serious that fifty armed deputies, headed by Monongahela police, have gone to the scene to quell the disturbance. The trouble at the mine has been brewing for several days between the Russian miners, who are on strike, and the American miners, who refused to join the strike. The Russians threaten an open attack when the morning shift tries to go to work. It is believed, however, that the large number of officers on hand will be able to quell any violent disturbances. The mine officers are reported to be held in the company's offices, while the American miners are kept in the mine shaft.

SAYS BROTHER IS INNOCENT

WOMAN IS BRUTALLY KILLED

Body Found Long After the Murder With Throat Cut—Convicted Man Maintained He Was Trying to Defend the Victim.

Washington, Pa., March 3.—"My God! That's my brother! He never killed that woman. I am the murderer. I should have been hanged instead of Eugene!" cried Adolph Bloch Thursday in a frenzy of remorse, interrupting a companion at the steel mill in Cannonsburg who was reading to him an account of the hanging of Eugene Bloch at Allentown on Tuesday.

He is in the Washington county jail, awaiting a hearing on the charge of the murder to which he has confessed and for which his innocent brother has been executed.

He is 26 years old and formerly lived in Philadelphia. His brother was hanged for the alleged murder of Mrs. Kate Falsinger, on Aug. 6, 1903.

Admits His Guilt.
Adolph Bloch declared to the authorities, after the item had been read to him, that he himself killed Mrs. Falsinger, and that the brother who had been hanged was guiltless. Bloch is a mill worker, reads newspapers but little, and says he knew nothing of the trial, conviction and execution of his brother until Thursday.

The murder of Mrs. Falsinger was a brutal one. Her throat was cut and her dead body was found hours after the crime. Eugene Bloch was arrested. He claimed that Mrs. Falsinger had been attacked by a stranger and that he was trying to defend the woman when she was killed.

Adolph Bloch says his brother knew him to be guilty and suffered death rather than betray him. When brought to the jail here Bloch was in a state of collapse.

Says Brother Know.
He gave out a statement in which he acknowledged his guilt and expressed the hope that no mercy would be shown him for the terrible crime he committed.

The Allentown officials, who were communicated with over the long-distance telephone, said it was impossible that an innocent man should have been hanged for the Falsinger murder.

DEMAND FOR $250,000 IN GOLD
Writer Asks a Banker's Daughter to Bring Money and Elope.

New York, March 3.—A note, the last of three threatening ones, addressed to Miss Julia Morosini, noted horsewoman and the idolized daughter of Giovanni P. Morosini, millionaire banker, has thrown the fashionable colony at Riverdale into a state of excitement. The note reads:

"Excuse me not keeping my last appointment. Now, meet me Thursday morning, March 2, at the Riverdale depot. Have with you $200,000, either in gold or silver. We will elope. If you don't appear, watch out."

Mr. Morosini said: "This fellow is of the harmless type. Perhaps he is some imbecile. I have not even made an effort to find him."

MUKDEN MAY BE CAPTURED SOON

Tokio Reports Show Japs Are Using Their Heavy Siege Guns To Good Advantage Upon The Russian Lines.

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPTS-M'RAE.]
Tokio, March 3.—A report was current this morning that the Japanese had almost reached Mukden. The battle is still raging fiercely. The Russians have recaptured several positions lost in the past few days.

Yesterday's Fight

Gen. Oku's reports of yesterday's date say the Japanese have opened a terrific bombardment. The heaviest guns ever used on a battlefield did great damage to the Russian defenses. The Russian guns are quiet, evidently unable to reply. The Japanese left has completely blocked the Russian attempts to effect a turning movement.

Nogi Is Fighting

A cablegram from Sakhetun in Manchuria says that the Japanese today made two stubborn attacks on Putiolo hill but were each time repulsed. The general bombardment of the hill was then resumed. Stubborn fighting has been in progress all day. The Japanese attacked two points on the Russian extreme left. This morning the Russians retook the fortification at Guato Pass, which had been previously abandoned. Four divisions of the Japanese army today reached Sawinpu, a place eleven miles west of Mukden, but the advance was checked by the Russian army with reinforcements. Nogi and his Port Arthur veterans were participating in today's fighting. The losses were extremely heavy on both sides; the result is undecided.

Pushing Forward

A Tokio dispatch states that General Kuroki reports that the Japanese are pushing forward and have now gained Opuy's Takshin by surprising the Russians. A tremendous bombardment of Wanpaoan hill is in progress at the present. The Japanese have just occupied Witosan.

Ultimatum Rejected

A dispatch from St. Petersburg states that an ultimatum was presented by the workmen, who were connected with the recent labor troubles, to the Russian government, demanding immediate reforms, and that it has been rejected. A general strike seems inevitable.

Utters Appeal to the People

St. Petersburg, March 3.—The Official Messenger publishes an imperial manifesto calling on the country to rally round the throne in defense of the empire from its internal enemies. A man armed with a large, heavily loaded revolver was arrested last night by vigilant police guarding the czar in his palace at Tsarkoo Solo. The prisoner says he is a nephew of General Fock, but papers found on him are suspicious.

Since Grand Duke Sergius was murdered the czar's guards, both police and military, have been doubled and are constantly on the lookout for assassins.

The czar's distress of mind is reflected in the reply he sent to the address of the Moscow bourse pledging adherence to the autocracy: "In this year of grievous trial this

FULL-BLOOD INDIAN AT THE UNIVERSITY THIS YEAR

Wisconsin Has an Indian Swimmer, Thomas L. St. Germaine.

Madison, Wis., March 3.—A leading member of the University of Wisconsin swimming team is a full-blooded American Indian. His name is Thomas L. St. Germaine, and he is an earnest, unassuming young man of much strength. He was a substitute member of the university football team last fall, playing at guard and tackle. Much is expected of him on the gridiron next fall, unless Coach Phil King dislikes him. It is a tradition here that no colored or red-skinned athlete can have a place on a team if Phil King is coach. St. Germaine is one of the most clever wrestlers in the university and is prominent in almost every department of athletics and physical training. He was brought to Wisconsin by former Graduate Manager C. H. Kilpatrick.

RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT ASKS PEOPLES SUPPORT

An Imperial Manifesto Published Today, Asks The Nation To Stand Firm.

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPTS-M'RAE.]
St. Petersburg, March 3.—An imperial manifesto was published in the Official Messenger today, which says: "The nation should adopt an attitude of calmness and tranquility and especially on account of the enormous struggle with Japan. The people should give a whole-hearted support to the present regime, for autocracy is the only form of government possible in Russia. Blinded by pride and evil-minded leaders, the revolutionary movement is making insolent attacks on the Holy Orthodox church and lawfully established pillars of the Russian state, thinking to destroy the existing order and set up a new administration not suitable to the fatherland." The assassination of Grand Duke Sergius was referred to as having deeply shocked the national feeling. It concluded with an appeal to right-minded people of all classes to gather round the throne for the preservation of existing order.

NEWS FOR THE PLAY-GOERS

The dramatization of Wescott's widely read and phenomenally successful book, "David Harum," with Mr. Harry Brown in the title role, will be presented at the Myers Grand Friday, March 3. There is little to be said regarding the extent and scope of the popularity of "David Harum" as a sketch of life and characters in central New York. The publishers of the book can prove the vast sale which the work has enjoyed, but it is beyond the power of anyone to even estimate the great number of its readers. This can be more readily understood when it is realized that one copy of the book has travelled through many households. In dramatizing the book the fact was never lost sight of that in order to make of it a successful play, all of those things which endeared it to its readers would have to be incorporated in the comedy. The work was tried about two years and a half ago and its success since that time has been phenomenal. Nearly 200 performances of the comedy were given in New York and it has had long runs in Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston. The readers of the book will be pleased to know that in working it into play shape very few liberties were taken with it. A strict adherence to the text was insisted upon. There are three acts and all of the scenes are laid in Homeville, New York. The audience sees in the first act David's bank, Aunt Polly's house with its old fashioned plants and flowers and the big barn in the background. The second act shows Harum's office just behind the counting room of the bank, an office littered with equine trappings and pictures of famous horses, and the third act shows the sitting room of Aunt Polly's house.

All of the familiar characters of the book are in the play. There is pretty Mary Blake, John Lenox, the miserably old skinflint, Zeke Swinney; the village tough, Bill Montague; the poor widow Cullom; dear old Aunt Polly, pet Chet Timson, Amos Bright; David's factotum, Dick Larabee; General Volsey and Deacon Perkins. The horse trade is shown on the opening act and in the closing act there is the story of David's visit to the circus. The play ends with the Christmas dinner and the engagement of Mary Blake and John Lenox.

No Paper Tomorrow

Their being a general disposition and a purpose to celebrate tomorrow as a holiday throughout the country, we propose to do what we can to make it a general holiday, and shall therefore publish no paper tomorrow.

We do this readily because we issued a paper on the 22d of last month which was a legal holiday. If there is any news of importance we shall issue an extra which can be obtained at this office.

A Statement of the Case

Editor Gazette: For the sake of truth, as well as "humanity," I beg to explain my reason for not admitting Mr. Daggett into the Graham house. On that day I had been selling the household furniture, lease, etc., had dismissed all my hired help, every room in the house was out of order, consequently I had no suitable place to receive him, and neither had I any one to pay him that undivided attention which a man in his critical situation requires.

This Schuyler house being so near at hand I suggested taking him there, as I knew the accommodations there would be such as his case demanded. Had it not also been for sickness in my family I would have at once received him and given him my best attention.

WEEKLY REPORT OF EASTERN MARKET

Letter on Trade Conditions in New York and Forecast for March.

New York, WHEAT.—It has been a less active and rather irregular week in wheat, during which the general news has been somewhat conflicting, and prices, reflecting the continued liquidation of trailing longs following the rapid advance of the previous week, have worked a little lower on May, which closed the week at a net loss of 1½ cents, while July, reflecting the presence of the short interest mentioned in our last letter, has ruled generally firm in spite of good crop accounts from the Southwest, and is nearly half a cent net higher.

There has been no material change in general trade conditions or crop prospects. Early in the week interior receipts were running a little heavier, but contract grades are not increasing to any extent, and the bulk of bringing Argentine wheat to this country has abated, although offerings from that country to Europe are increasing and the week's shipments were the heaviest so far for the season. The primary markets have ruled quite as firm as the greater speculative centers, and while the milling demand is not pressing, it appears to be sufficient to take wheat out of sight more rapidly than it is brought in. Naturally the better weather in the West following the prolonged period of poor shipping conditions has been partially responsible for the larger receipts, but it also appears that country offerings increased somewhat on the bulge.

We do not think that the comparative freedom from bull manipulation this week can be taken as an indication of the accuracy of rumors that were circulated at one time to the effect that there has been a disagreement among the bull leaders as to advisability of carrying on the May deal, nor do we think it at all safe to operate with the expectation that the squeeze in May is over. Conditions as far as we can see at the present time place May completely in the control of the bull pool, if they are long anything like the amount supposed, and while the market may temporarily work a little lower, just as soon as another short interest has accumulated to make it worth while another sharp upturn will result. The price is still a little high for purchases, but we would rather buy wheat on sharp breaks than trade on the short side.

CORN.—The corn market has also been irregular, and early in the week weakened somewhat on reports of larger country acceptances and the better weather for movement, while the fresh cash demand for export was also disappointing. Clearances, however, were heavy toward the close of the week. Rainy weather has forecasted for the corn belt, which was thought likely to interfere with the movement, and, in spite of optimistic reports concerning the Argentine crop, the market firmed up promptly and closed the week at a net gain of about 1½ to 2 cents a bushel, with May particularly firm on reports that the bull pool in wheat was also taking an interest in May corn. Without expressing any opinion as to the accuracy of the later statement, it is evident that May corn is receiving important support in the Western market, and is, we think, due to sell considerably higher than present prices. For the immediate future we should assume a conservatively bullish position on the market and watch developments.

OATS.—Oats continue quiet from a speculative standpoint. The general trade seems to be bearish on oats, and there is a big short interest in the market. The cash position may not be particularly encouraging at the moment, but too many people are waiting for a decline, and in our opinion, May oats at anything under 31 cents in Chicago is an excellent purchase.

PROVISIONS.—With a weak market for live hogs and continued full receipts, the market has had no friends this week apparently. Packers has shown no inclination to support it, in spite of the fact that at this season of the year these interests are usually bullish on the market for products, and decline has followed decline until at the present time the market is at about the low point. We think it is low enough, in view of the high price for corn, although the poor grading of that article is naturally a point in favor of low price of hogs. At any rate we would much rather buy provisions at present quotations than to sell short. There must be a considerable short interest, and any bullish development would start covering.

COFFEE.—March liquidation has been the feature this week, and prices have gone to another new low level with March selling at 6.45 against $8.00 at the high point of the season. Business has been very active. No less than 550,000 hogs were tendered on March contracts on Friday, but were promptly stopped, and prices closed the week at a moderate recovery from the lowest.

We are free to admit that we have been disappointed in coffee and can no longer see any reason for any material advance this season, owing to heavier Brazilian receipts than we had looked for. But as matters stand now we think the market an excellent purchase for a turn. The visible supply statement as of March 1st will probably show an encouraging decrease, and receipts are not going to run as heavy as compared with last year during March. In addition to this, the long interest is out of the market and there has been considerable short selling which suggests covering in the near future.

Money for Wisconsin.

Washington, March 3.—The comptroller of the treasury received the decision of the auditor for the war department on the claim of the state of Wisconsin for interest paid on bonds issued to raise money to aid the United States in the civil war. The state has already been paid $458,677 and the comptroller finds still due $725,981.

One of the most interesting stories of articles on the subject of the great railroads of the country that has appeared recently is that from the pen of Frank H. THE NEW GERMAN TARIFF.

The recent action of the German Reichstag in ratifying the new commercial treaties with Russia, Austria-Hungary, Italy, Switzerland, Belgium, Roumania, and Servia completes the work of preparation of a new German tariff on which the government of the Empire has been engaged since 1897. The new tariff law will go into effect sometime between January 1 and July 1, 1906, and will remain in force at least until the end of 1917.

The German tariff consists of a double set of duties; the "general" rates, which received the sanction of law December 25, 1902 (though it has not been put into force as yet), and the "conventional," or those arrived at by means of bargaining with foreign countries and embodied in treaties or "conventions" such as the ones described below. Not all the rates in the general tariff are reduced in the conventional; those that are, are made in consideration of equivalent concessions by other countries. While the different countries are each trying to secure, through their negotiations, lower rates of import duties on those articles in which their industries excel, the combined conventional rates agreed upon with the different parties to the treaties are made applicable alike to all the countries enjoying the benefits of the "most-favored-nation" treatment. By that is meant in Europe that the nation enjoying such privilege can not be subjected to higher import duties on its products than those levied on similar products coming from other countries.

The new German tariff may therefore be regarded now as completed, but by the terms of the agreements with the different governments the new rates will only take effect sometime between January 1 and July 1, 1906. They are to remain in force until December 31, 1917, except in the case of Austria-Hungary, the treaty with which may be abrogated as early as December 31, 1915, if notice to that effect be given one year in advance. Should the treaties with the other countries not be denounced before the end of the year 1917, one year's previous notice of their termination may be given on either party to the agreement at any time thereafter.

The old "conventional" tariff, which is still in force in Germany, was the result of similar commercial treaties concluded by Chancellor v. Caprivi in the years 1891-1894 for a period of ten to twelve years. Although made up of rates reduced from the general tariff adopted by Prince Bismarck in 1879, they were left sufficiently high to afford what was considered a necessary degree of protection to the German industries, to which stable conditions were assured by "binding" the rates for a period of ten years or more.

The new tariff has been framed with the avowed purpose of furnishing greater protection to the agricultural interests of the Empire. Hence the duties on grain, meats, and other agricultural products have been greatly advanced—in some cases as high as 100 per cent, and in a few instances even higher. The duties on manufactured goods are substantially unchanged. While a few rates have been advanced, such as on shoes, certain kinds of machinery, motors, and vehicles, etc., there have been made, on the other hand, a number of reductions wherever it was deemed best in the interests of German manufacturers or exporters.

Under the old tariff imports from the United States have been subject to the lower or "conventional" set of duties, at first under the "most-favored-nation" clause of the treaty concluded between the United States and Prussia in 1828, and later by virtue of the commercial agreement between the United States and Germany of July 10, 1900, by which this country was granted the conventional tariff in exchange for the concessions of the Dingley act of 1897. This agreement may be terminated by either country at any time upon giving three months' previous notice.

The German government has so far refused to commit itself as to the course it intends to pursue with reference to this country in the matter of the new tariff, when questioned on the subject in the German Reichstag. Until the new tariff, however, is put in force, i. e., one year hence, imports from the United States will continue at any rate to pay the minimum rates of duty under the old tariff.

AN INDIGNANT EDITOR.

A notoriety seeker in the senate has introduced a bill providing that the formulas be printed on the wrapper of all proprietary medicines offered for sale in the state. Should this bill be passed it would not only deprive the druggists of the state of a large part of their income but would subject the people to the dangers of substitution in their medicines and many families will be deprived of relief. It is to be hoped that the senate will sit down hard on this measure and we confidently look to see the representatives from this district diligently applying a fence that they would like to have a chance to vote for Roosevelt.

Doubtless the senators feel that the public should be grateful that they are merely killing good bills when they might be passing bad ones.

While no torpedo boats were present, the court feels that Roosevelt was only doing his duty in shooting at those which were not there.

It is unfair to say that the railroads oppose a rate-regulating law. They will cheerfully accept any such law that cannot be enforced.

American vaudeville must be pretty bad when spectators get up and shoot themselves in the midst of a performance.

United States senators are not very weatherwise or they would note that the public sentiment barometer is falling rapidly.

If the national weather bureau means to be solid with the new administration it knows what it has to do March 4.

Congratulations are in order for the Indiana legislator who refused to look upon the $100 bill when it was crisp.

PRESS COMMENT.

Madison Journal: Our Wisconsin zealous sober moves, along in a manner so deliberate as fully to justify the name.

La Crosse Leader-Press: Senator Noble will become famous as the man who offered the patent medicine bill which didn't pass.

Green Bay Gazette: The newspapers are devoting columns to the "passing of Addicks." It is evident he failed to fill his finish.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: Good roads can never be obtained by legislative devices intended to shift their cost from the many to the few.

Racine Journal: The bill providing that proprietary medicine concerns shall publish their formulas is nothing but a proposed law creating a doctor's trust.

Chicago Record-Herald: Professor Loeb is able now to hatch sea urchins from unfertilized eggs, but if he wants to cause real excitement let him drop the sea urchins and find out how to get gold without a gold mine.

Milwaukee Sentinel: A bill has been introduced in the New York legislature forbidding the docking of horses' tails. A humane and sensible bill. Docking is mutilation, and mutilation is disfigurement—hence painful and hideous.

Oshkosh Northwestern: It is charged against Governor Folk of Missouri that he is in the habit of smoking five cent cigars. Which merely goes to show that you cannot always size up the importance of a man by the brand of cigars he uses.

Milwaukee News: If the state legislature would appropriate the money, there's no doubt that Madison would be willing to furnish all the facilities of a state capitol, but it would come like pulling teeth for its large property owners to contribute for the public benefit a part of the unearned increment that is finding lodgement in their pockets.

Rockford Register-Gazette: President Roosevelt seems to have pretty nearly wiped out party lines. The Michigan Democratic state judicial convention held at Battle Creek Tuesday adopted resolutions praising the president's acts. Dozens of Rockford democrats have openly declared during the past few weeks that they would like to have a chance to vote for Roosevelt.

St. Paul Globe: Everybody in the west understands just how evil are the existing land laws as administered. Everybody knows that their purpose is to transfer the remaining public lands as rapidly as possible not to settlers, but to speculators and capitalists. The public lands commission reports, the president recommends, the people endorse, but what will congress do about it?

Edgerton Eagle: A certain tobacco buyer who has been doing considerable riding the past week showed several contracts at 4 1/2 to 4 3/4 for 1904 tobacco. Another during a day's buying this week did not pay to exceed 50 for the best crop purchased. And the farmers are wondering how to figure out $100 an acre on the result.

El Paso Herald: Many papers and writers are agitated over "How to Treat the Flag." The best way is to treat it with respect; incidentally touching your hat when you happen to pass where it flies to mean something, as on a government reservation a battleship of a fort, and paying no special attention to it when it is merely a bit of patriotic pretentiousness over a grocery or a hotel.

Sheboygan Journal: Sheboygan republicans are doing their best to get their party together after the split last fall. The chief difficulty seems to be to make those whom the victors thought were vanquished, and stay so. Party harmony to the stalwarts, apparently means an equal share in party rewards, while to the supporters of Governor La Follette it means at least a short period of probation and proof of good behavior. In time of course, all these old differences will be forgotten, but the trouble seems too recent for it to be entirely overlooked.

La Crosse Chronicle: Before the thrifty lumbermen capture all of the pine in the northern part of Wisconsin, our state should select a tract of a thousand acres or such matter where the pines and other trees have not been disturbed. Possibly there is not a tract of this size that has not been visited by the woodsman. In that case take one not so large, whether large or small, and constitute it a park and make provision that not a tree is to be cut or removed except in case of decay of where the high winds have laid it low. Twenty-five years from now such a park would be considered one of the most attractive spots in our state.

STUDENT GOODMAN PAYS A HEAVY FINE

On His Plea of Guilty to Charge Arising from Wednesday Evening Escapade

Frank Goodman who, with a sixteen-year-old young woman by the name of Harriet Gilbertson, engaged rooms at one of the hotels Wednesday evening, registering as man and wife, went to Beloit yesterday, and returning in the evening again engaged rooms at the same hotel, pleaded guilty to the charge of unlawful intimacy preferred against him in municipal court late this afternoon and was fined $25 and costs amounting to $31.50. The fine and costs were paid. The girl's mother did not wish to prosecute, though she was the one who complained in the first instance to the police. Goodman was arrested while undergoing the ceremonies of initiation to a local lodge last evening. He comes from Indiana, is a man of about 28 years of age, and is attending the school of telegraphy.

PROVIDES FOR FINE OF $20,000

Each Offense Is Made Expensive to the Combines, While Expulsion From State Will Follow Persistent Disregard of Law.

Topoka, Kas., March 2.—By the action of the senate Thursday Kansas now has a law to prevent the operation of trusts within the state. Senator Nofsinger's bill was passed unanimously. For each violation of the law by stifling competition in any business there is provided a fine of $20,000, and expulsion from the state of any firm that may persist in violations.

The measure is patterned after the Texas law, and is similar to the anti-discrimination act already passed by both houses.

The Atchison, Topoka & Santa Fe Railroad company is to be included in Attorney General Coleman's suit for conspiracy against the Standard Oil company, which was left out of the original petition by an error of the stenographer. He will at once file an amended petition.

The suit is brought against all the railroads in the state to dissolve the freight rate combination.

Fails to Pay Charter Fees. The strongest feature, according to the attorney general, is that relating to the failure of the Standard to pay charter fees, thus having no authority to do business in the state.

In case the quo warranto action against the Standard fails the officials will press the suit brought in Sedan against the Santa Fe. This will have the same effect on the freight rate situation as the suit brought by the attorney general. Papers in the Sedan case have not yet been served on the Santa Fe.

The house considered a resolution providing for an investigation of Kansas railroad rates by the railroad commission. It is alleged the railroads are discriminating against Kansas.

STANDARD OIL CHARGES.

Kansas City, Mo., March 2.—The suit by Attorney General Coleman tooust the Standard from Kansas and for the appointment of a receiver for its property is not against the Prairie Oil and Gas company, which is the operating auxiliary of the Standard in the West, but against the parent organization.

The allegations are that the Standard is a foreign corporation and doing business in Kansas without authority, right to title from the state charter board, and failed to give the names and addresses of any of its officers, directors or stockholders, or to give any other information demanded by the state.

The Standard Oil company was served with legal notice of the filing of proceedings in the Kansas supreme court and asking for the appointment of a receiver for its business in Kansas.

UNIVERSITY AND NORMAL SCHOOLS

Graduates From the State Normal Schools Relation to the University Classes.

The president of the state normal schools, and President Van Hise, on behalf of the University of Wisconsin have adopted a new plan for a closer correlation between the courses of the Wisconsin normal schools with those of the state university. The new plan, which is a very satisfactory one to both the normal schools and the university, is regarded as an important step in unifying as closely as possible the higher educational interests of the state. As a result of the new arrangement, graduates of all the Wisconsin normal schools will be granted advanced standing when they continue their studies at the state university. In this way a graduate of the advanced course in the Wisconsin normal schools, who is also a graduate of a four-year standard high school, will receive full credit for one year's work towards his degree of bachelor of arts. These graduates of the normal school, who have selected their studies with special reference to attendance at the university may receive additional credit amounting to one-half year's work, and may thus secure the degree of bachelor of arts after two and one-half years' attendance at the university.

The present "Philosophy Course" has been modified and will be known hereafter as the "Course for Normal School Graduates," but the degree of bachelor of philosophy which is granted in this course will be continued as at present. For this degree any foreign language taken in the normal school will be credited for similar university courses. The requirement in philosophy and education in this new course for normal graduates has been reduced by nearly fifty per cent, so that students may take more work in other departments of the university.

As a result of this new plan of correlating the work of the normal schools with that of the university it is anticipated that the large number of graduates of normal schools who are continuing their education at the university will be greatly increased, and that a larger percentage than heretofore will become candidates for the degree of bachelor of arts, in preference to that of bachelor of philosophy.

ARIZONA ENJOYS SUMMER WEATHER

E. O. Brown, Former Janesville Man, Writes of Rain and Sunshine.

E. O. Brown, formerly of Janesville, writing from Scottsdale, Arizona, has a number of interesting things to say, contrasting the weather and conditions there to those of Wisconsin at the present time. He says in part: "While Wisconsin has been having her share of winter, again, Arizona, as far as rain would go, to make winter weather, has also had plenty for nearly two months. Still, we have more than the average amount of sunshine. There has been snow in sight for nearly two months now up in the mountains, but the weather in the valley is warm and has been all winter. We have had but one night when it was cold enough to freeze ice, and several frosts in the early part of the winter. Nearly one-half the people in the valley live in tents or cheap houses. The rain has made some wish they had shingle roofs, but most of the campers have fared very well with the canvas houses. The desert is nearly as green as the fields, making it possible to herd cattle or sheep any place. People are expecting a big crop of everything this year. Wheat now, where there are no cattle to eat it down, is commencing to head out. The greater part of the trees have most of their leaves, and orange trees with oranges and buds on can be seen. The rose-bushes have blossomed all winter and now are beginning to bud out for their best bloom. We think we have the only winter climate on earth and it certainly is grand. Anyone that comes here, I think, doubly repaid for the climate comes as near making a person over as is possible. There are several people here that have gained from fifteen to thirty pounds in the last two months, so it can be seen what the climate can do for people who are run down."

HE DENIES THE ALLEGATION THAT EGGS WERE NOT FRESH

John A. Tuck Brings an Action to Recover $18 From Management of Hilton House, Beloit.

Hilton & Son, proprietors of the Hilton house, Beloit, are defendants in an action brought by John A. Tuck to recover $18.50 for eggs which plaintiff claims were fresh and good, and which the defendants refuse to pay for on the ground that they were not good enough for their boarders. Mr. Tuck claims that he sold them a large consignment and that some time later he was informed that half of them were unfit for use. The action came up in Justice Earle's court yesterday and was adjourned two weeks.

NORCROSS MAKES FACETIOUS TALK

Janesville Assemblymen Amused the Legislature with His Remarks Yesterday.

According to the Milwaukee Sentinel, Assemblyman Norcross of this city has become quite a wit. Captain Norcross has been one of the strong men of the legislature ever since the present session opened and the Sentinel prints the following regarding his latest efforts:
"An amusing feature of the session today was a speech by Assemblyman Pliny Norcross of Janesville on the slaughter of bills. There were thirteen measures on the calendar for indefinite postponement, and the Janesville member seized the opportunity. He started out by consoling the authors of the doomed measures, saying that they might derive some satisfaction from the thought that the bills were killed now no future legislature would have an opportunity of tinkering with them. If the session was to be made as short as possible, the legislature would have to wield the ax often, he said.
"So far, 1,171 bills had been presented to the legislature, and if it was the desire of the members not to project the session well into the summer months, it would require summary disposition of many measures. He urged the committee to report back bills in their possession as early as possible, and not to hesitate to pronounce the death sentence. Mr. Norcross' remarks were warmly applauded."

CARRIED AWAY DOG TO STEELVILLE, MO.

Animal Claimed by John B. Smith Found in Possession of Tift Family.

Last week Monday Mrs. Helen Tift, widow of the late Daniel Tift, and her sons who had been residing on Sharon street, left for Steelville, Missouri, where they are to make their future home. John B. Smith, proprietor of the mercantile store on South River street, had reason to suspect that one of the boys had taken his valuable shepherd dog along with the household goods, and communicated his suspicions to Chief Comstock. The latter tried to stop the migration for purposes of investigation at Englewood and falling in this telegraphed the police authorities at Steelville. This morning he received a dispatch from J. A. Grab, the sheriff of Crawford county, Mo., informing him that a dog answering the description had been found with the household property upon the arrival of the family and was held awaiting orders. It is probable that the young man who took the animal will be glad to pay express charges back to escape prosecution.

MISTAKEN IDEA AS TO PROPERTY

Investors Should Examine Mr. Russell's Proposition Very Carefully; It is Good.

There seems to be a mistaken idea regarding the article which appeared in the Gazette last Tuesday, relative to the Fox River Valley Lead and Zinc company. The article was written at the request of prospective buyers, of stockholders who already had stock in the company and desired to know the exact conditions of the mine and its equipment. The writer personally visited the mine last Friday and wrote exactly as he found things. It was not a stock jobbing affair but a strictly true account of a mine and the work done. Through the kindness of Mr. Fred Avery, the superintendent, the photographs were taken. Mr. E. A. Kemmerer and Mr. Edward Bailey have also visited the mine and as a result have purchased stock. The Gazette correspondent simply acted as the representative of other buyers who could not themselves go personally. Mr. Nelson J. Russell, president of the company, said this afternoon that at the present time the company has enough ore in sight to raise the price of the stock to par value. The sale of this stock is merely to complete the work on the mine itself and when the present block is sold, no more will be sold. The present price is thirty cents and it is safe to say that within a very short time it will be at par. Every day stock in western mines is sold that no one here has ever seen and has only heard of from newspaper accounts. The Fox River Valley mine is located in a rich ore country less than a day's journey away. Buying stock in a proposition that is unknown, and uncertain is one thing, but buying stock in a proposition that is sure, with paying ore in sight, as shown by the cut published Tuesday, to begin paying dividends with and with an almost certainty of striking a rich bonanza a few feet below where they are now working. The fact that the bulk of the stock is owned by Janesville men of known integrity should be a strong factor in the case. The Fox River Valley mine is a rich proposition and the persons who are missing a great opportunity. Nelson J. Russell, who is here representing the company in Janesville, leaves for Rockford tomorrow, where mail can reach him. After his departure, Mr. Edward Bailey will act as representative for him in the sale of stock. The samples in the window of the Myers house office show clearly what kind of ore is being taken from the mine at present and these with the report of the Gazette correspondent should convince any skeptical mind that the stock is an excellent thing to purchase. The present block is the last that will be sold and when disposed of no more will be upon the market.

Herman Kath has sold his saloon business and will remove shortly to Whitton, Indiana.

CURES CATARRHAL DEAFNESS.

One Week's Use of Hyomei Did More than Six Months' Treatment by Specialists.

In the treatment of deafness which is often a result of catarrh Hyomei acts almost immediately upon the inflamed membrane and the hearing begins to return at once. A few days' treatment will bring relief, and in three or four weeks, according to the severity of the case, a cure will be accomplished.

Miss Moeck of Mattewan, N. Y., says: "Hyomei is truly wonderful. I have used it but a short time and see a great change in my condition. My hearing is improving rapidly and I had no idea I would improve so rapidly in so short a time. My breath which was so offensive to myself and others, has lost its bad odor entirely. I have spent a great deal of money with catarrh specialists and can truly say that six months of their treatment is not equal to one month of Hyomei."

Peoples' Drug Store are selling Hyomei upon the unusual plan of agreeing to return the money if the medicine does not cure.

A complete outfit costs only $1.00 and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler will last a lifetime and there is enough Hyomei for several weeks' treatment. Additional bottles of Hyomei can be procured for 50 cents. Compare this small expense with the fees charged by specialists and then remember that if Hyomei does not cure Peoples' Drug Store will return your money.

THIRD ANNUAL SHAKESPEARE PRODUCTION WAS SUCCESSFUL

Given Two Evenings by Students of Milton College at Home of President Daland.

Milton, March 2.—Shakespeare's "A Mid-Summer Night's Dream" was presented on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at the residence of President Daland by students of Milton college under the direction of Mrs. Daland and Miss Agnes Babcock of the College faculty. This is the third annual event of the kind, the "Merchant of Venice" and "Julius Caesar" having been rendered one and two years ago. Each year's presentation has been a more pronounced success than former efforts, both in the thorough preparation of the actors and in their more intelligent interpretation of the characters presented. The audience on Tuesday evening included the students of the College Academy and School of Music, and on Wednesday evening the trustees and faculty of the college and a few of the guests. It is expected that the comedy will be presented by the same actors at commencement time in the auditorium tent, where a much larger number will be able to enjoy the results of the painstaking efforts of both directors and actors to produce a worthy presentation of this most enjoyable comedy.

OFFENSIVE CATARRH

I suffered for a long time with a bad case of Catarrh, and took a great deal of medicine without any benefit.

I had a continual headache, my cheeks had grown purple, my nose was always stopped up, my breath had a sickening and disgusting odor, and I coughed incessantly.

I heard of your S. S. S. and wrote you. I commenced to use it, and after taking several bottles I was cured and have never since had the slightest symptom of the disease. Miss Mary L. STORM, Cor. 7th & Felix Sts., St. Joseph, Mo.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 29, 1903.

I had Nasal Catarrh for years for which I used S. S. S. with very gratifying results. I tried local applications for some time, and getting no permanent relief I came to the conclusion that the seat of the trouble was in the blood. Knowing S. S. S. to be a good blood medicine I began its use, and after using it for some little while it did away entirely with the offensive mucus in the nostrils, and I did not have to hawk and spit, especially in the morning, to dislodge the catarrhal matter.

1627 South St. FRED H. PRAKSY.

The filthy secretions and foul mucus that are continually dropping back into the throat, find their way into the stomach and are absorbed into the blood. Catarrh then becomes constitutional, and the only way to get rid of it is through the blood. Write us if you have Catarrh, and our physicians will advise you without charge.
